

Accounting and QuickBooks for Farmers

March 23, 24, 30, & 31
5:30–8:30 p.m. each evening

Executive Networking Center
77 Mohouli St
Hilo, Hawai'i Island

This QuickBooks workshop is intended for businesses actively producing agricultural crops for commercial sales. It is best suited for those who want to increase their accounting skills by using QuickBooks software for farm financial recordkeeping. Registrants should already be using QuickBooks (desktop or online version) and have some accounting experience.

This four-day course will cover chart of accounts set-up, cash receipts and accounts receivable, cash disbursements and accounts payable, Hawai'i excise tax reporting, and customizing invoices for your farm. Attendees should bring their laptop computers and have access to QuickBooks.

Registration is $25 per person. Space is limited to 15 participants.

Register online by March 20 at koha.la/quickbooks-hilo or contact Eric Bowman at ebowman@kohalacenter.org or 808-887-6411.

Funded with support from AgriLogic Consulting and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Workshop made possible by USDA RME Partnership Agreement #RM18RMETS524C007. The Kohala Center is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.