

PROJECT: New Water Pressure Reducer Valve at Kailua Recycle and Transfer Station

Date: January 8, 2013

JOB NO.: SW-4178, Request for Quotations

| CONTRACTOR                                  | BASIC BID   |            | REMARKS                 |
|---------------------------------------------|-------------|------------|-------------------------|
| De Lima's Plumbing Inc                      | No Response | Witnesses: | Ryan Dixon - DEM/SWD    |
| Eddie's Plumbing Inc                        | No Response |            | Iris Oshiro - DPW/Admin |
| Hilo Mechanical Inc                         | No Response |            |                         |
| William C Loeffler Construction Inc         | $7,800.00  |            |                         |
| William De Silva Jr dba De Silva's Plumbing | No Response |            |                         |
|                                             |             |            |                         |
|                                             |             |            |                         |
|                                             |             |            |                         |
|                                             |             |            |                         |
|                                             |             |            |                         |
| Estimated Cost by County of Hawai'i:        | $6,000.00  |            |                         |