Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions.

1. In your experience, how prevalent is the issue of squatting and adverse possession?

Relatively speaking, very minor.

2. In what communities and districts do squatting and adverse possession appear most prominent?

Generally, the poorer areas and beaches.

3. When you receive notice or a complaint about these situations, what is your normal course of action?

Nothing

4. What kinds of complications have arisen in the past that have prevented a successful resolution of the situation?

N/A

5. For those situations that have been successfully resolved, please describe what happened.

Decent housing for the homeless was found.

6. What happens when you contact or try to contact the owner of record?

N/A

7. What solutions would you recommend?

Decent housing made available for the homeless.

8. Are there any other comments you would like to make?

Sometimes squatters are dealing with mental health issues, including self-medication with alcohol and other drugs. These people need treatment and a network for care, the domain of County and State Health Departments.
