Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions.

1. In your experience, how prevalent is the issue of squatting and adverse possession?

It's pretty hidden.

2. In what communities and districts do squatting and adverse possession appear most prominent?

I'm only familiar with the kona sections.

3. When you receive notice or a complaint about these situations, what is your normal course of action?

I don't receive complaints.

4. What kinds of complications have arisen in the past that have prevented a successful resolution of the situation?

5. For those situations that have been successfully resolved, please describe what happened.

6. What happens when you contact or try to contact the owner of record?

7. What solutions would you recommend?

I would like to have repossessed property listed for sale. Shadow inventory is skewing the market for real estate.

8. Are there any other comments you would like to make?

How legal is it for a government entity to provide someone an airline ticket to hawaii? Can we stop or reduce mainland cities from dumping people here?
