

PUNA COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PLAN

SEPTEMBER 2008
(As Amended)

What does the Kilauea Recovery and Resilience Plan have to do with the Puna CDP?

Kilauea Recovery and Resilience Plan

Soooo what's the difference between the CDP Action
Committee and the Resilience
Capacity Area Action Teams?

- Appointed by the Mayor
- Advisory to the Planning Director
- Bound by Sunshine Law
- Actively guide and advocate implementation of the CDP
- Broaden community awareness and build partnerships

- Multi-Sector Collaboration: community, COH, public agencies, private, philanthropic, and non-profit sectors
- Actively facilitate projects that provide relief to residents and businesses impacted by the eruption in the Puna District

Natural Environment Resilience Capacity Area

Franny Brewer Michelle Agbigay Bethany Morrison

Leading community actions to develop and strengthen;

- natural resources and land use
- ahupua'a
- climate resilience
- Indigenous ecosystems and biodiversity

Economic Resilience Capacity Area

Susie Osborne Ashley Kierkiewicz Brent Norris

Leading community actions to develop and strengthen;

- na 'ohana and local economy
- financial capacity
- entrepreneurial ecosystem
- housing affordability

Cultural Resilience Capacity Area

Leila Kealoha community co-chair
Bob Agres County co-chair
Leah Gouker community co-chair

Leading community actions to nurture and sustain;

- local knowledge and wisdom
- cultural practice and heritage
- cultural places, values, and identity

Social Resilience Capacity Area

Greg Armstrong Sharon Hirota Smiley Burrows

Leading community actions to promote;

- social connectedness
- health and safety
- education and recreation

Built Environment Resilience Capacity Area

Ku'u lei Cooper Garrett Smith

Leading community actions to develop and strengthen;

- effective and resilient infrastructure
- buildings and housing
- engineering
- connectivity
- urban and rural planning

Youth Resilience Capacity Area

U'ilani Kūali'i Hōkūlani Fortunato Misty Carter

Leading community actions to;

- Empower youth to exercise voice and take action as Puna community members
- Elevate and engage with the next generation of leaders

