BUSINESS

1. Final Draft General Plan 2045 Presentation – Presentation and Q&A by Planning Department Staff regarding the Final Draft General Plan 2045.

This item was called to order at 5:51 p.m. [SEE YOUTUBE TIMESTAMP 48:45]

County Planning Department staff April Surprenant and Natasha Soriano presented on the Final Recommended Draft General Plan 2045. The presentation covered what the General Plan is and its role in the planning system, the comprehensive review process, and the structure and organization of the draft. There was time for questions from members of the public.

During the presentation and Q&A session, numerous questions and comments arose concerning land use, transportation, infrastructure, water, and the implementation of the plan. Many attendees expressed concern about managing resources with rising population and land prices by asking how the plan addresses immediate needs using existing resources. There were multiple questions regarding the ‘Ōuli Farms project and the implications of proposed land use changes on rural and agricultural lands. Attendees also highlighted concerns about climate change, cultural preservation, water shortages, and the lack of public health considerations in the plan.

The Action Committee lost quorum at 7:40 p.m.
